

When Kes Madrid falls out of the raft while on the Zambezi River in Africa, her life takes a turn toward the dark world of espionage and deceit.

Beginning in Zimbabwe, Kes and her team travel to third world countries, making things right for the citizens who live in those places.

This series of books describes how Kes is protected and recruited by the CIA, turning her into one of their finest assets because of her natural abilities. She overcomes many internal conflicts throughout the series, making the reader want to experience the journey with her.

Andie Alexander is a writer of adventure and mystery novels. She makes her home in Wisconsin, dreaming of traveling the world. Along with writing many books, she contributes to teaching the craft of writing by creating articles for various websites, newsletters and paid online articles.

Contact information:

Email: andie.alexander@gmail.com

Website: www.AndieAlexander.com

Blog: www.AndieAlexander.com/blog/